

DISCLAIMER

The South African Maritime Training Academy (SAMTRA), and any subsidiary thereof, prides itself in researching and staying up to date with the very latest developments in international maritime conventions, legislation and regulations as issued or promulgated by the International Maritime Organisation (IMO) or by any other international maritime or legal organisations or by individual states or regional authorities including South Africa.

SAMTRA is accredited by the South African Maritime Safety Authority (SAMSA) in respect of courses presented by SAMTRA. Course material and curricula are prepared in close consultation with and approved by SAMSA. Any examination or certification that is undertaken or issued by SAMTRA following such training will either be undertaken by SAMTRA under the authority of SAMSA or be undertaken and/issued by SAMSA.

By enrolling and agreeing to undertake courses at SAMTRA, participants accept that SAMTRA shall not be liable for any loss of or damage to any property, or injury, minor or fatal, to any person, or for any damages otherwise suffered and which may be attributable to any error or omission by SAMTRA in the provision of the training.

SAMTRA conducts all operations in a professional manner and in accordance with relevant legislation such as the Protection of Personal Information Act (POPI), which sets out the standards for collecting, using, disclosing and storing personal information of staff and clients, the safeguarding thereof and the rights to access of such information.

Personal information provided to the company by course participants will only be utilised in compliance with any regulatory requirements applicable to the training provided and will be kept secure and not divulged to any unrelated third party and will be managed in terms of the company's POPI policy which is in compliance with the above statements regarding POPI.